Our Vision Statement

To shape, support and encourage women of diverse occupations and backgrounds to gain personal and career developmental skills, education and leadership opportunities through mentorship and national resources. WGTE promotes and supports businesswomen and our community in a fun environment while building relationships with one another.

ABWA's Mission Statement

The mission of the American Business Women's Association is to bring together business women of diverse occupations and to provide opportunities for them to help themselves and others grow personally and professionally through leadership, education, networking support and national recognition.

Why Join ABWA? Here's What Our Members Say...

"ABWA has provided me with the tools necessary to grow personally and professionally. My self-confidence has grown exponentially. I have not only served on the Executive Board since I joined in 2016, but I have also served in the position of President three times."

*-Carole Arnold, President
ABWA member since 2016*

“

"I joined ABWA to network with other business women to foster relationships with other business minded professionals and to sharpen my business skills. What I recieved was that and a sisterhood, and circle of friends to cheer you on and support your ides and growth every step of the way."

*-Gail Rice, President Elect
ABWA member since 2020*
